

GOING TO THE ARCTIC TO BRING BACK CANADIAN EXPLORING EXPEDITION

(By Associated Press.)

SEATTLE, Apr. 21.—Capt. Louis L. Lane, an Arctic navigator of long experience, announced here today that he will leave Seattle for the Arctic ocean about June 1 in a 300-ton power schooner now being built here, and expects to return to Nome or Seattle next autumn with Vilhjalmur Stefansson and the other members of the Canadian government exploring expedition that sailed from Victoria, B. C., for the Arctic ocean June 7, 1913. Capt. Lane plans to be at Banks Land in the Polar sea, about August 5, and to meet Stefansson there. Lane, in the power schooner Polar Bear, too Stefansson and two companions from Banks Land to Herschel Island last August, and afterward sold the Polar Bear to Stefansson, who returned to Banks Land with this boat and the small power boat Gladiator, intending to pass the winter in exploration of Banks Land and then, on the breaking of the ice this spring, making further exploration of the new land which he discovered last year, north of Melville Island. Capt. Lane is now in Seattle supervising construction of his schooner.

Capt. Lane is going north, not under contract with the Canadian government, but under a verbal agreement with Stefansson. Lane's new power boat, which probably will be named the Great Bear, will be of wooden construction, and the strongest ice-resisting vessel ever built on Puget Sound. Lane will take with him gasoline and other supplies for the Stefansson fleet.

Unless ice movement are unfavorable, Capt. Lane expects to reach Banks Land at the time fixed upon. If he has good fortune, he will call first at Herschel Island, where he may receive word from Stefansson. If he does not get instructions there, he will proceed north to Banks Land, making stops at points agreed upon last year, where Stefansson may have letters or men waiting for Lane. It may be that the explorers will choose to return to Nome in their own boats, the power schooners Polar Bear, Alaska, Mary Sachs and North Star.

A dispatch from Christiania, Norway, announcing that Captain Roald Amundsen, discoverer of the north-west passage and the South Pole, plans to set out on a North Pole expedition in the spring of 1917, by way of Bering Strait, interests Arctic navigators greatly. Amundsen intended to leave San Francisco several years ago, sail from Bering Strait toward the North Pole and return between Spitzbergen and Greenland. He abandoned his voyage because of lack of funds. In the years that have elapsed motorboat progress has been rapid and new engines that burn small quantities of fuel have simplified Arctic problems. Amundsen will use a 100-ton power boat.

NOT KNOWN TO THE MANAGER OF TONOPAH DAILY BONANZA

Mrs. James Gilbert writes from Palisade, Nev., inquiring for information about one B. Wallace, representing himself as agent for the Superior Tailoring company, of 811 Mission street, San Francisco, who referred to W. W. Booth as an old friend. Mrs. Gilbert says Wallace came through that section about six weeks ago when she and her husband gave orders for suits. Mr. Gilbert received a cheap ready made suit instead of the expensive one he ordered while Mrs. Gilbert never received the tailor-made suit she ordered. Another Palisade man gave an order for a good measured suit and received a cheap ready made one from a different house than the one that made Mr. Gilbert's clothes.

MURRAY FOUND GUILTY OF TAKING MONEY FROM EMPLOYE

At midnight last night the jury in the case of the State vs. Murray charged with demanding and receiving money from an employee of the Tonopah Extension mine for retaining him in service, brought in a verdict of guilty as charged. The defendant was remanded to the sheriff until Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

FAMOUS PRISON GUARD OF CARSON CITY DEAD

Wellington Bowen, who was a guard at the state prison at the time of the attempted break on the morning of December 1, 1870, recently died in Carson. In stopping the convicts, Bowen shot three of them and then in return received injuries which later developed into paralysis and he has been in a helpless condition since shortly after receiving the wound. Every legislature since 1900 passed a relief bill making an appropriation for Bowen.

FUNERAL OF MRS. CRITCHFIELD

The remains of the late Mrs. Ed. Critchfield which were due to arrive this morning from Reno did not come owing to the fact that relatives from Winnemucca could not make the train connection at Hazen. The body will come in tomorrow and the funeral will be held from the Presbyterian church at 3:30 instead of 3 p. m. as first suggested owing to a prior engagement of Rev. Mr. Bayless.

CHOICE MEATS ON DISPLAY

pany's employees are busily engaged dressing their windows with a most attractive and appetizing display of Easter meats, fruit and table delicacies of all descriptions. Now that Lent is at an end, with its attendant self-deprivation, this display is certainly an appealing one.
